OF AUSTRALIA

Technology in the federal courts

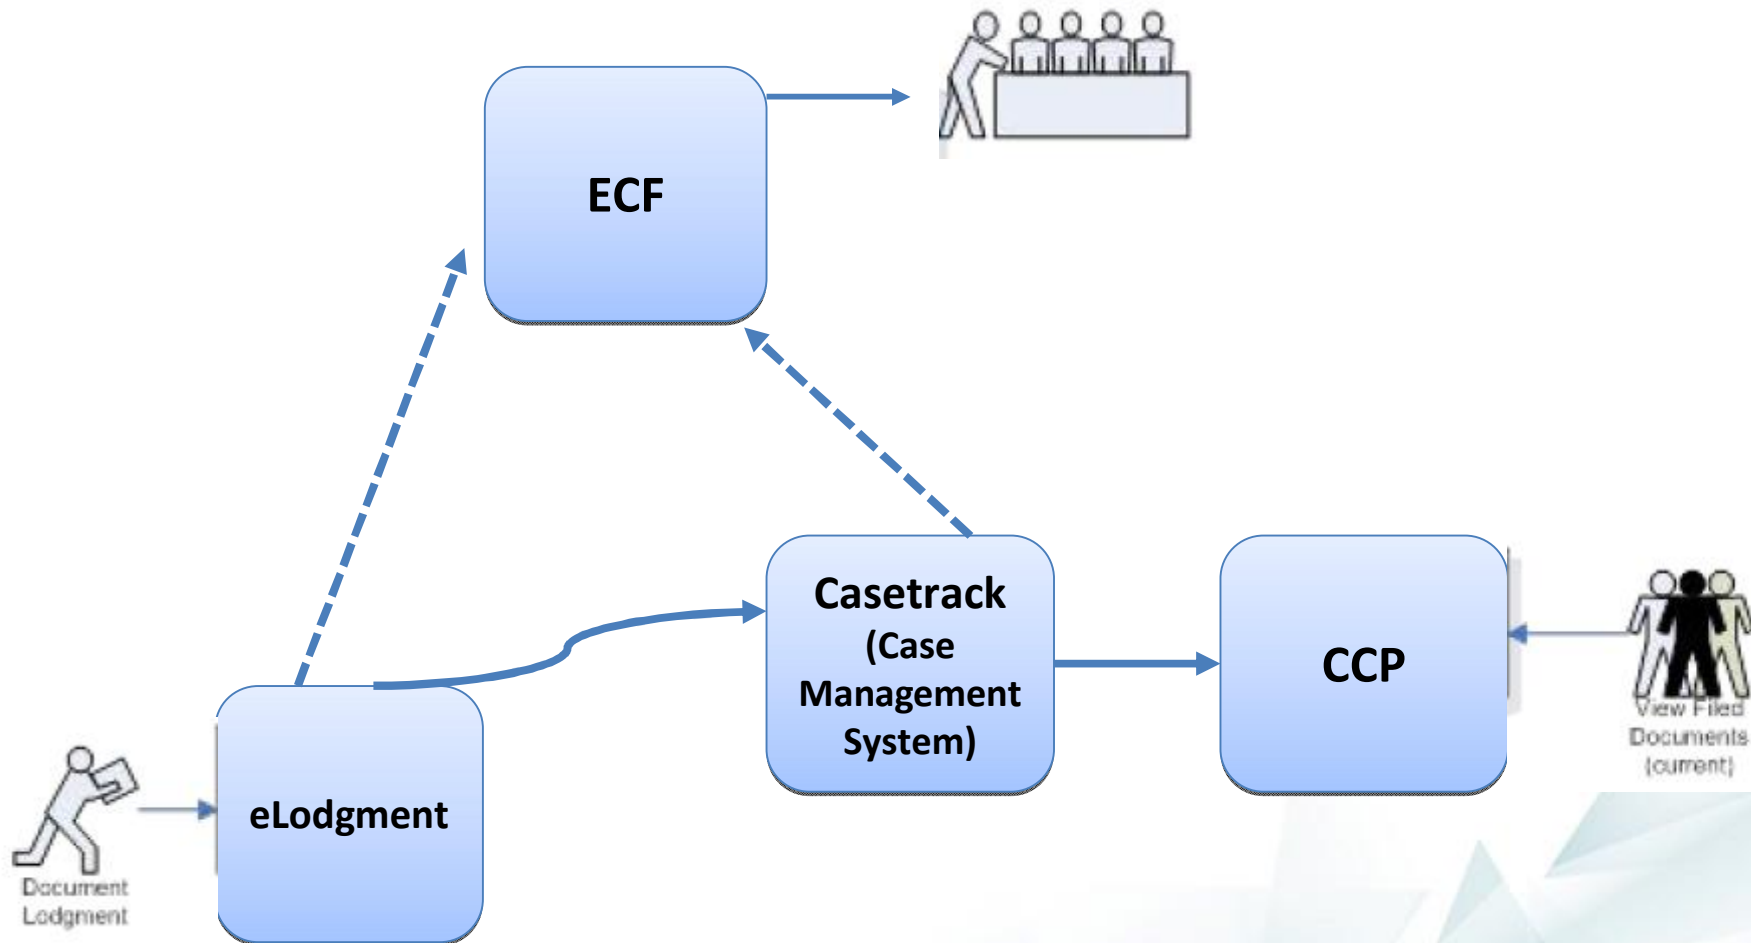

Warwick Soden
Chief Executive Officer
Federal Court of Australia
Family Court of Australia

STATS

- “ ECF was introduced into the Federal Court (FCA) and Federal Circuit Court: General Federal Law Division (FCC: GFL) in 2014.
- “ There are now 52,589 ECF Files across the Federal Court and Federal Circuit Court
 - . Made up of over 450,000 documents
 - . Electronically stored data totals almost 3.5 Terabytes
 - . That's the equivalent of 750 million pages printed both sides over 16km high and would take roughly 1,500 years, reading 24/7, to read through all that data.

eLODGMENT

- “ eLodgment is the electronic filing facility for the FCA and FCC: GFL division.
- “ Allows practitioners and litigants to lodge documents on their matters from anywhere in the world, from any device. It’s as simple as “Browse, Attach, Send”.

COMMONWEALTH COURTS PORTAL (CCP)

- “ CCP is a free service, which provides the public and the Courts’ clients with access to information about cases before the FCA and FCC:GFL.
- “ CCP has two views – public and private.
- “ Private view, with proper registration, will allow parties and their legal representatives to:
 - . View and organise their files
 - . View recent activity and check their ‘Court Diary’
 - . View the same orders and documents as on the ECF
